is adopted to select and train athletes and teams for participation in the major international events by drawing Long Term Development Programme (LTDP) to put in action four year roll-on Plan under which elite sportspersons selected on the basis of their performance are put through scientifically designed continuous training programme. Coaches are also being imparted training from time to time. The selections for sportspersons and their coaches for participation in Olympics Games are made by the National Sports Federation (NSFs). However, sportspersons/teams have to qualify/ achieve the qualifying standards/norms fixed by the International Sports Federation/International Olympic Committee in identified national/ international competitions before they participate in Olympic Games. No specific amount is allocated for preparation for Olympic Games only.

(d) Government of India through Sports Authority of India (SAI) runs various schemes such as National Sports Talent Contest Schemes, Army Boys Sports Company Scheme, Special Area Games Scheme and Centre of Excellence Scheme in order to scout talent at young age and nurture them.

(e) and (f) Many promising sportspersons, who have been imparted training under the above schemes, brought laurels to the country. However, it is premature to assess the achievements of trainees under these Schemes for Olympic Games, 2008.
